FiddleFest was a smashing success and returns in 2011 - Saturday, June 18th! I am still on a high from my recent travels to Houston, Chicago and the International Pinot Noir Celebration in Oregon. So as my last hoorah before harvest, I want to offer some end-of-summer specials. Read on!

Exclusive Tour of Fiddlestix

For our Fantastic and Fanatic Wine Clubbers only!

On Saturday, August 21st, be my guest at Fiddlestix Vineyard for a tour in our tractor-drawn carriage. You will also be treated to a private Library Tasting in our historic barn at mile marker 7.28.

I will share my take on the upcoming harvest, divulge an insider's scoop on what makes Fiddlestix so special and pour a taste of some hidden gems that I have reserved for this event.

Based on your feedback, we will have several library wines and big bottles available for purchase along with other great deals for attendees only. Limited to 30 guests, two people per membership.

Please email us by Friday, August 13th to reserve your spot. Two bottle members - email us to upgrade your membership! (rsvp@fiddleheadcellars.com)

Another Movie Debut

Fiddlehead wines have found acting fame once again! Get out of the summer heat and treat yourself to the movies - we suggest "The Kids Are All Right". And don't be late because it doesn't take long for Fiddlehead to make its appearance!

But something is not quite right. Someone made a goof! Check out our (newly up and running!) blog to read all about it.

Don't Take Our Word For It

Testimonial #122:

"I wanted to do something nice for [a friend] since he would not accept payment, and Fiddlehead immediately came to mind. He and his wife love wine and I don't know whether they have ever tried Fiddlehead. This will be a thank you that he can't refuse!"

- Tom, January 2010
